Training in Group Facilitation on Saturday, 15th Feb, 9.30am to 12.30pm in Ballykisteen Hotel to be provided by Fr Eamonn Fitzgibbon, Irish Institute for Pastoral Studies, M.I.C. St Patrick's, Thurles.

This training in group facilitation is being organised at this time with a view to increasing the skill levels of those involved in our parishes as; our Biblical Apostolate Resource Group prepare a diocesan programme of scripture sharing for Lent 2020 and as we respond to the priorities identified by our Listening Process*, in particular, the ongoing formation of pastoral groups. Therefore, parishioners with the potential and willingness to become involved in group facilitation are invited to consult with their Parish Priest regarding participation in this training before Wednesday, February 5th 2020. Every Parish Priest has been informed about and invited to submit the names of his parishioners for this training initiative.

*see our Diocesan Website under Pastoral Resources for an update upon the follow-up to our Listening Process.

We invite anybody who would like to attend to contact the Sacristy

Story Once there was a great biblical scholar who was also noted for his great piety. He spent hours every day secluded in his room studying the Scriptures, and praying and meditating. One day a holy man visited the town in which the scholar lived. On hearing about it, the scholar set out to look for him. He looked first in the church, but did not find him there. Then he looked in a local shrine, but he wasn't there either. He looked in other likely places but failed to find him. Eventually he found him in the marketplace. On meeting him he told him who he was, and how he spent hours every day studying the Scriptures and in prayer and meditation. Then he said, 'I have come to seek your advice on how I might grow in the service of God.' The advice he got was simple and direct. The holy man said, 'It's easy to be a sage and a saint in your room'. We are not told whether or not the scholar had the courage to act on that advice. It is the kind of advice Jesus gives us in today's Gospel when he says, 'You are the light of the world. No one lights a lamp to put it underneath a tub, they put it on the lampstand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in the sight of people, so that seeing your good works, they may give praise to your Father in heaven.' It is easy to let the light shine in the comfort and safety of one's room. But that can be a selfish thing, because it means we are keeping the light to ourselves. It is not so easy to let the light shine in the rough and tumble of the marketplace. But that is where it is most needed.
